2. The auction will commence at 2 P.M. on the day of sale, and if the sale is not completed on the same day, it will be continued on the next following day at the same time.

3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 100. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned at the close of the sale. The successful bidder shall, within three days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, pay into the Mysore District Treasury one-fourth of the total rental including the deposit already made. Should he fail to do so, the deposit will be forfeited and the exclusive privilege will be re-sold by the officer conducting the sale.

5. The sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss by such re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale.

If the deficit be not paid on demand, it will be liable to be recovered as a revenue demand.

6. The lessee shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions below, and it should be executed within three days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him; in default, the deposit will be forfeited and the right re-sold.

7. The balance of the lease amount and the local cess at one anna in the rupee on the whole sum shall be paid in full before the end of July 1902 or by quarterly khists in advance, i. e., on 1st October 1902 (1st khist), 2nd January 1903 (2nd khist) and 1st April 1903 (3rd khist). In the event of a khist not being so paid, collection and removal of the barks will be stopped, and the whole of the balance of the lease amount and local cess due will be recovered as revenue arrears.

Conditions.

- (1) No stem or shoot under one year old to be cut or barked.
- (2) To hold himself responsible to prevent the felling of tender stems by his servants or sub-contractors.
- (3) To furnish a list of sub-contractors and mestris who may be appointed by him for the collection of bark in the different working circles.
- (4) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.
- (5) To keep accounts showing the quantity of the bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the District Forest Officer, Forest Range Officer, and the Amildar or any officer deputed by them.
- (6) To provide passes for each cart-load of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the District Forest Officer.
- (7) To remove out of the limits of the Mysore District, and before the end of June 1903, all barks cut, collected or stored.
- (8) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled, all the barks collected to be confiscated, and the whole of the amount paid by him or such portion thereof as may be decided by the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore, to be forfeited to Government.

PROCLAMATION AND NOTIFICATION OF SALE OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTY.

Notification dated 13th May 1902.

1. It is hereby notified that, in satisfaction of arrears of land revenue due by Ramachar and others, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the office of the Amildar of the Bowringpet Taluk, Kolar District, on the 28th June 1902. The sale will commence at 11 A. M., and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser on the property for the whole of the year 1901-02 is Rs. 241-12-0, as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at a sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals; otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the property tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner, will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

9 Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale, shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to Government against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
